

Publications

- The authors carry the legal obligations for their abstract; any violation of a third party's right will be the responsibility of the authors.
- The authors are required to authorize the organizers of the CReATe Conference to publish and distribute the abstract(s), and poster(s) submitted, including printed, audio, and electronic versions.
- A consent form will be sent to authors upon acceptance of their abstract(s) which is required to be submitted and signed by the authors.
- Mobility India & Ohio State University, USA can jointly produce the report including the recommendation for the way forward.